7. COOKIES

- 7.1. This website uses cookies. A cookie is a small file that can be stored on your computer when you visit a website. Cookies are generally used to offer users additional functions on a website. For example, they may be used to make navigating the website easier, to enable you to pick up where you left off on a page you have previously visited, and/or to save your preferences and settings for when you visit a website again. Cookies cannot access, read or modify any other files on your computer.
- 7.2. Most of the cookies on this website are session cookies. These are deleted automatically when you leave the website. Persistent cookies, however, remain on your computer until you manually delete them in your browser. We use persistent cookies to help us recognise you, when you next visit our website.
- 7.3. If you would like to monitor cookies on your computer, you can select browser settings that mean you will receive a message when a website wants to save cookies. You can also block or delete cookies that have been saved on your computer. If you would like to know more about how to do this, please use your browser's Help function.
- 7.4. Please note that blocking or deleting cookies will restrict online processes and may prevent you from being able to use this website fully.

8. LINKS TO OTHER WEBSITES

- 8.1. This website contains links to other websites. The data controller is not responsible for privacy statements or how your data is handled by other websites, and the data controller has no influence over the processing of personal data by other websites. This privacy statement is only applicable to data that is collected and processed by the data controller itself.

9. GOOGLE ANALYTICS PRIVACY STATEMENT

- 9.1. This website uses Google Analytics, a web analytics service provided by Google, Inc., 1600 Amphitheatre Parkway, Mountain View, CA 94043, USA ("Google"). Google Analytics uses "cookies", which are text files placed on your computer, to help the website analyse how users use the site. We process your data on the basis of our legitimate interest, in order to collect easily-analysed website usage statistics in a cost-efficient way (article 6(1)(f) GDPR).
- 9.2. The information generated by the cookie about your use of the website (including your IP address and the urls of visited websites) will be transmitted to and stored by Google on servers in the United States. We do not store any of your data that is collected in connection with Google Analytics.
- 9.3. This website uses IP anonymization as offered by Google Analytics. Your IP address will be shortened/anonymised as soon as it is received by Google. On our behalf, Google will use this information for the purpose of evaluating your use of the website, compiling reports on website activity and providing other services to us relating to website activity and internet usage. Google will not associate the IP address transferred by your browser in the context of Google Analytics with any other data held by Google.
- 9.4. You may refuse the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings on your browser, however please note that if you do this you may not be able to use the full functionality of this website. Furthermore, you can prevent the collection of data by Google in connection with Google Analytics by downloading and installing the browser plug-in through the following link: <http://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=en>.

10. SOCIAL MEDIA PLUG-INS

- 10.1. HOFBURG Vienna uses social media plug-ins on its hofburg.com website (e.g. share and like buttons) for the social networks Facebook (facebook.com), Google+ (plus.google.com), LinkedIn (linkedin.com) and Xing (xing.com).
- a) facebook.com, operated by Facebook Inc., 1601 S. California Ave, Palo Alto, CA 94304, USA ("Facebook"),
 - b) Google+, operated by Google Inc., 1600 Amphitheatre Parkway, Mountain View, CA 94043, USA ("Google+")
 - c) LinkedIn, operated by LinkedIn Ireland Unlimited Company Wilton Plaza, Wilton Place, Dublin 2, Ireland
 - d) Xing, operated by XING SE Dammtorstrasse 30 20354 Hamburg Germany
- 10.2. The social media plug-ins are initially deactivated (greyed-out). They are only activated when the user first clicks on them. At that point, the source code for the plug-ins is downloaded from the social media providers' servers. If you then wish to use the social media plug-ins, you need to click on them a second time, to use the function offered by each plug-in (this is known as a two-click solution for additional data protection).
- 10.3. When you use a plug-in, you send i) your IP address, ii) the url of the website you are visiting, and iii) cookies to the social media provider. By this means, the social media provider receives personal data concerning you and your visit to our website.

11. GOOGLE MAPS

This website uses Google Maps to display maps and directions. Google Maps is operated by Google Inc., 1600 Amphitheatre Parkway, Mountain View, CA 94043, USA ("Google"). By using this website, you consent to the collection, processing and use of data collected automatically and that you submit by Google, its representatives, and third parties. Terms of use for Google Maps can be found at https://www.google.com/intl/en-GB_GB/help/terms_maps.html

12. FACEBOOK REMARKETING

- 12.1. Within our on-line offer so-called "Facebook pixels" of the social network Facebook, which are Facebook Inc., 1 Hacker Way, Menlo Park, CA 94025, USA, or if you are based in the EU, Facebook Ireland Ltd., 4 Grand Canal Square, Grand Canal Harbor, Dublin 2, Ireland is operated ("Facebook"). With the help of the Facebook pixel it is possible for Facebook to designate the visitors of our offer as a target group for the presentation of advertisements, so-called "Facebook Ads". Accordingly, we use the Facebook pixel to display the Facebook ads we have been sent only to those Facebook users who have also shown an interest in our website. In other words, with the help of the Facebook pixel, we want to make sure that our Facebook ads are in line with the potential interest of users and are not annoying. With the help of the Facebook pixel, we can also understand the effectiveness of the Facebook ads for statistical and market research purposes, by seeing if users were redirected to our site after clicking on a Facebook ad.
- 12.2. The Facebook pixel is integrated when calling our website directly through Facebook and can on your device a so-called cookie, i. save a small file. If you subsequently log in to Facebook or visit Facebook in the logged-in state, the visit of our offer will be noted in your profile. The data collected about you are anonymous to us, so do not give us any conclusions about the identity of the users. However, the data is stored and processed by Facebook, so that a connection to the respective user profile is possible. The processing of the data by Facebook

HOFBURG
